Farewell Performance

The Mong Company will soon say good bye to Klamath Falls, the closing date has been arranged and the last performance will soon be announced. On Thursday evening when the Company will be seen in Mr. Mong's great success "Till Death Do Us Part," the players will indulge in what Manager Houston is pleased to call "A pleasing prank of the parting players," and if you want to witness it you must be in the theatre at 8:30 for promptly at that time the fun will begin. On Thursday night many of our readers will see what they have never seen before and what many of us may never see again—the professional actor at the make up table—Those who get their seats early will see the Company apply their grease paint, wig, whiskers and all "make-up" for the characters they will portray in the drama. The seats for "Till Death Do Us Part" are now on sale at the Perfection.

Council Meets Tonight

The special meeting of the Council was not held last night as was announced but will take place tonight. The most important matter that will come up will be the appointment of councilmen to fill the vacancies caused by the death of Dr. G. W. Maston and by the resignation of Fred Schallack. It is generally understood that Marion Hanks will be appointed to fill the Third ward vacancy and C. E. Crisler to fill the one in the Second.

Back From Crook

Chester Avery has returned from Crook County where he accompanied Chas. Horton on a cattle buying tour. He says they succeeded in buying 700 head of steers which Mr. Horton is now pasturing in the Wood River valley. He states that Crook is no longer overstocked with cattle and that few sales are being made in that section.

"The Store That's Doing the Business"

The Service

you obtain from your clothing is two-fold. There is style service and the service defined by the durability of the garments. The one is a matter of taste and the other a matter of quality.

The patrons of this store have learned that we safeguard them on both kinds of service, and in addition to this we endeavor to give them at all times the very best personal service possible. Your good will and patronage are our existence, and we shall endeavor to merit them—now and always.

The moment we have a dissatisfied customer we expect to close our store, unless it is a man who thinks so little of his money, that will purchase something that does not please him and neglect to tell us about it. If you buy anything in this store and it disappoints you in any way, shape or manner, come and tell us about it; we are here to make it right.
